WALSH COLLEGE PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES
2009-2010

Doctor of Management in Executive Leadership (DM-EL)

The goal of the DM-EL program is to strengthen public and private sector leaders who can think strategically and act decisively in today’s global business environment. Students will develop the skills necessary to act decisively in meeting the rapidly changing social and business environment. The program is designed to develop leadership skills through exposure to critical thinking in both the theory and application of the latest strategic leadership and change management ideals. Graduates will be prepared to excel in significant roles as leaders in the world’s global business environment.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>LEARNING OUTCOMES</th>
<th>DIRECT MEASURES</th>
<th>INDIRECT MEASURES</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Students will be able to demonstrate an ability to manage organizations in the context of broad issues such as culture and politics, technology and social system design, and human capital approaches to social problem solving. | 1. Student portfolios of work.
2. Completion of three comprehensive exams.
3. Prepare and successfully defend a doctorate level dissertation. | 1. Mid-point Survey
2. Doctorate Exit Survey
3. Alumni Survey |
| 2. Students will be able to address leadership issues from an interdisciplinary perspective. | 1. Student portfolios of work.
2. Completion of three comprehensive exams.
3. Prepare and successfully defend a doctorate level dissertation. | 1. Mid-point Survey
2. Doctorate Exit Survey
3. Alumni Survey |
| 3. Students will be able to define and conduct issue-oriented research and contribute to applied leadership knowledge. | 1. Student portfolios of work.
2. Completion of three comprehensive exams.
3. Prepare and successfully defend a doctorate level dissertation. | 1. Mid-point Survey
2. Doctorate Exit Survey
3. Alumni Survey |