Master of Science in Information Systems (MSIS)

The goal of the MSIS program is to provide instruction in how Information Technology impacts the business world. Students leaving the MSIS program will have an understanding of database, networking, and security technologies along with knowledge of how to manage these technologies in today's business climate.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Students will be able to define how technology impacts business.

2. Students will be able to explain information security concepts.

3. Students will be able to produce technology-based presentations.

DIRECT MEASURES

1. Project in the capstone course.
2. Project presentation at Capstone Fair.

INDIRECT MEASURES

1. Graduate Exit Survey
2. Alumni Survey