TROY, Mich., May 25, 2012 /PRNewswire-USNewswire/ -- Business leaders, consultants, or business educators seeking to further their career with a doctoral degree are invited to join Walsh College for an information session on the Doctor of Management \(DM\) in Executive Leadership, a professional doctoral degree. The information session will take place on Thursday, May 31, from 6 - 8 p.m. at the Troy Campus. Individuals can learn more and register at www.walshcollege.edu/DMinfosession.

Walsh College's Doctor of Management program is an intensive, part-time program designed for working professionals. The program's goal is to develop scholar practitioners by advancing their knowledge through theory and applied research, and shaping candidates to lead and manage effectively in contemporary organizations.

Information session participants will learn about the curriculum, the blend of weekend classes and online course delivery, admissions requirements, and application process. The event will conclude with a DM student panel discussion and Q & A with DM faculty and session attendees.

"Walsh is looking forward to inaugurating a new cohort for the DM program," Linda Hagan, Ph.D., director of the Doctor of Management of the curriculum."
