

NOV. 10
Awards ceremony
at Walsh College

President and CEO of the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants (MACPA) Peggy Dzierzawski, CAE, will be one of the recipients of the Walsh College Jeffery W. Barry Award for Educational Excellence and Community Service. The award will be presented at the Walsh College annual Leadership Awards Dinner on Saturday, Nov. 10.

This award, named after longtime Walsh College President Jeffery W. Barry, goes to individuals who demonstrate leadership in their profession and a commitment to the community through philanthropic efforts.

Dzierzawski began her career at the MACPA in 1974 and worked in every department by 1992, when she was named deputy executive director.

She became the organization's president in 1997.

