

NOV. 8 Business community to share insights

Leaders from the Auburn Hills business community will share insights on ways to manage a multi-generational workforce at the Auburn Hills Chamber's next Talent Townhall Luncheon, 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 8 at the Crown Plaza in Auburn Hills. Speakers include Chris Scharrer from Leadership Oakland and Dr. Lee Meadows from Walsh College. They will provide insights on how to effectively manage "Boomers" to "Millenials" in a diverse workforce. Talent Townhall is open to members and non-members. Tickets are $32 and $40 respectively. Corporate tables are available and include signage and recognition. Pre-registration is required through www.auburnhillschamber.com. The event is sponsored by Oakland University, Corp!, Baker College, Snelling Staffing Services and Oakland Community College. For information about Talent Townhall, contact the Auburn Hills Chamber of Commerce at 248-853-7862 or info@auburnhillschamber.com or visit www.auburnhillschamber.com.

