

WALSH COLLEGE FINANCE LAB

A LEADING FINANCIAL RESOURCE IN MICHIGAN

- Provides a hands-on environment with resources for students and faculty to become informed thought leaders
- Gather and analyze data to gain understanding of past, present, and projected future market conditions and trends
- Educates in software programs which drive financial marketplace
- Exclusive beneficiary and partner of the Michigan Alpha Project, real-world investing opportunity for students
- Research tools and databases useful for students in all Walsh degree programs

SUPPORT AND TRAINING FROM CERTIFIED LAB SPECIALISTS

- One-on-one and group training programs available for research, assignments, and projects
- Gain valuable competences with Bloomberg Essentials Training (BESS) and Bloomberg Aptitude Test (BAT)
- History of high scores by Walsh students on BAT, including third-highest score in Americas region April 2015

