For other SEC filings, you can select the Filings tab. Select the format you want to view your report in: HTML, Word, Excel, PDF. While on the Filings page, you can also select the Click here for Edgar Search to view other government documents filed by the company. For the 10-k report, fill out the form that displays. Enter either the ticker symbol or company name. Select the Filing type; for example, 10k, and select a date range. Click the search button.

LexisNexis Academic Database

- ❶ Select the Search by Subject or Topic link.
- ❷ Under Companies, select SEC Filings.

Next select a source or sources, for example Form 10-K; enter a date range, and select the COMPANY segment from the Build Your Own Segment Search box. Enter wal-mart inside the parenthesis after COMPANY. Click the red Apply button.

The screenshot shows the LexisNexis Academic SEC Filings Search interface. A red box highlights the search terms input field. Annotations include:

- Enter dates: Points to the 'Date' section where 'From' is set to 2013 and 'to' is set to 2016.
- Select the source(s): Points to the 'Sources' section where 'Form 10-K' is selected.
- Select a segment like COMPANY and enter the name in parentheses: Points to the 'Build Your Own Segment Search' box where 'COMPANY(wal-mart)' is entered.
- Click Apply: Points to the red 'Apply' button at the bottom of the search options.

You will be taken back to the red Search box screen. The search parameters you selected will display under the red search box. You will need to click Search to activate your search.

The screenshot shows the LexisNexis Academic SEC Filings Search interface after the search parameters have been applied. A red box highlights the search terms input field, which now contains 'COMPANY(wal-mart)'. Below the search box, the parameters are displayed: 'Date: 2013 to 2016; Source: Form 10-K'. An annotation points to the 'Search' button with the text: 'Your search selections will display. Click Search.'

The next screen shows the search results. Number 1 is the 10-K.

The screenshot shows the search results page for 'COMPANY(wal-mart)'. The results are sorted by 'Source Order' and show 23 results. The first result is highlighted:
