Dear Students,

According to the requirements listed below, you may be eligible to receive funds through the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act to provide Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF) emergency grants.

Emergency financial aid grants to students are intended to be used for expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus (including eligible expenses under a student's cost of attendance, such as food, housing, course materials, technology, health care, and child care).

Eligibility requirements:

- You must be eligible for Title IV federal funds.
- You must be enrolled in a degree program and taking at least one class for the Spring 2020 semester at the time of disbursement.
- You must have a validated FAFSA on file with Walsh's Financial Aid office.*
- You must attend class regularly and be making satisfactory academic progress in accordance with Financial Aid.

 If you do not have a validated FAFSA on file, you have through Friday, June 12, 2020 to complete one to maintain eligibility.*

If you do have a FAFSA on file, no additional action is required.

Distribution of Funds

FAFSA eligible students with an "Expected Family Contribution less than 5577" will receive $300.

All other FAFSA eligible students will receive $150.

If you are signed up for non-payroll direct deposit by 8 a.m. on Monday, June 1, funds will be received in your bank account beginning on Wednesday, June 3.

You can sign up for direct deposit at www.walshcollege.edu/refunds

If you are not signed up for non-payroll direct deposit, checks will be mailed starting on Wednesday, June 3.
