- Must have a validated FAFSA on file with Walsh's Financial Aid office with financial need based on predetermined criteria.
- Must attend class regularly and be making satisfactory academic progress in accordance with Financial Aid.

Grants:

- Automatic grant (no application process)
 - Distributed in the same manner as financial aid refunds
 - Does not need to be repaid
 - All FAFSA eligible students will receive $180
 - All PELL eligible students will receive $386
7. Any instructions, directions, or guidance provided by the institution to students concerning the Emergency Grants.

Dear

According to the requirements listed below, you have been awarded funds through the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations (CRRSA) Act to provide Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund II (HEERF II) emergency grants.

Emergency financial aid grants to students are intended to be used for any component of the student's cost of attendance or expenses related to coronavirus (including health care and child care).

Eligibility requirements:

- You must be eligible for Title IV federal funds.
- You must be enrolled in a degree program and enrolled at least half-time (undergraduates, 6 credit hours and graduate/doctoral, 3 credit hours) for the Spring 2021 semester at the time of disbursement.
- You must have a validated FAFSA on file with Walsh's Financial Aid office with financial need based on predetermined criteria.
- You must attend class regularly and be making satisfactory academic progress in accordance with Financial Aid.

Distribution of Funds

All FAFSA eligible students will receive $180 and all PELL eligible students will receive $386.

If you are signed up for non-payroll direct deposit by 8 a.m. on Monday, April 26, 2021, funds will be disbursed beginning on Wednesday, April 28, 2021.

We encourage all students to sign up for direct deposit at www.walshcollege.edu/refunds.

If you are not signed up for non-payroll direct deposit, checks will be mailed to the address on file beginning on Wednesday, April 28, 2021. Please keep in mind current mail delays may be encountered and are beyond our control.

We are here to help. Please contact us at business@walshcollege.edu with any questions.
